MARGARET BROOKHART MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Margaret McFarlane Brookhart was born in the gold mining town of Central City, Colorado, where her family built and owned the famous Central City Opera House. Margaret's lifelong interest in western traditions had its start when, as a young girl, she played the piano on the stage of Colorado's most famous opera house.

When she married Kenneth Brookhart, who served as the president of the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo and was one of the founders of the Pikes Peak Range Ride, her interest and involvement in western heritage continued. For many years, Margaret hosted the annual luncheon for former Girls of the West and their aides, and was an active member of the rodeo auxiliary Cowhand and Cowbells. She never missed the Pikes Peak Range Rider Street Breakfast, the rodeo parade, or a performance of the Pikes Peak or Bust Rodeo.

It is only fitting that this scholarship be created in the memory of Margaret Brookhart to reward those young students who have exhibited an interest in the American West by taking part in those activities which represent the West.
